EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS AND WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION

LARGE VEHICLE BOMBS: POST-BLAST INVESTIGATION, PART 3 LETN-162-0003

The purpose of any crime scene investigation is to figure out what happened, identify who committed the offense and present evidence at trial that results in a conviction. In the event of a large vehicle explosion like the one that killed 168 people at the Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City, you must manage a massive crime scene. We return to the FBI's Large Vehicle Explosive Device Post Blast Investigators training at Fallon Naval Air Station in Nevada, where students learn to investigate a large vehicle explosion. We examine proper crime scene documentation, diagrams and sketches, and recording and collecting evidence.

HOMELAND SECURITY AND COUNTERTERRORISM TOOLS FOR INTELLIGENCE AND CRIME ANALYSIS

LETN-161-0003

This lesson discusses the tools and techniques commonly observed in intelligence and crime analysis. An emphasis is placed on understanding the intelligence and crime analysis process through the application of various techniques. Each technique is described in detail.

EMERGING ISSUES IN HOMELAND SECURITY CRIMINAL PROFILING, PART 2

LETN-164-0002

Our series on criminal profiling continues. This program reviews those techniques used to profile criminals that have lead to successful capture.

LEGAL UPDATE

CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS V. EDMOND: ARE CHECKPOINTS FOR DRUG INTERDICTION PURPOSES CONSTITUTIONAL?

LETN-165-0003

In 2000, the United States Supreme Court decided the case of City of Indianapolis v. Edmond. In this case, the Court sought to answer the question, "Are traffic checkpoints where motor vehicles are stopped without cause for the primary purpose of looking for evidence of criminal drug violations unlawful under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution?" The court ruled that the Fourth Amendment does forbid such action. This Legal Update discusses the Edmond case and its impact on law enforcement.

FINDING INVISIBLE FOOTPRINT IMPRESSIONS AT CRIME SCENES, PARTS 1 AND 2

LETN-160-0004-5

This lesson presents the techniques for recognizing, preserving and collecting crime-scene footwear impressions that typically are not visible to the unaided eye. Preservation and collection requires only a limited need for specialized equipment, so ordinary crime scene equipment, such as a flashlight, can be used to locate this evidence at the crime scene.

DIGITAL CRIME AND INFRASTRUCTURE PROTECTION MULTIPLE-SCENE SEARCH AND SEIZURE IN COMPUTER CRIME

LETN-152-0003

This program outlines procedures for searching and seizing evidence from multiple locations. Topics include search warrants for electronic evidence and recognition and specific identification of potential electronic evidence.

TACTICAL PATROL

CONDUCTING TRAFFIC STOPS, PART 1

LETN-163-0002

This updated lesson provides information on what can be expected during the course of a traffic stop. Particular emphasis is placed on how to detect criminal activity, current legal issues and the broad importance of traffic stops as a function of law enforcement.
